Call to Worship: Romans 12:1

“I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God,
to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God.
This is our spiritual worship.”

Prayer of Confession (It is Lent, you know!)

Almighty and merciful God, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep.

We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts.

We have offended against your holy laws.

We have left undone those things which we ought to have done;
and we have done those things which we ought not to have done.

O Lord, have mercy on us.

Spare those who confess their faults.

Restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to the world in Christ Jesus our Lord.

And grant, O merciful God, for his sake, that we may live a holy, just, and humble life for the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon:

Hear the Good News!

The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance,
that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross,
that we might be dead to sin and be alive to all that is good.

In the name of Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

As an option, have the youngest in your home, who can, read Psalm 121. If you do not have a Bible at home, call or text Pastor Rob and he will drop one off on your porch. Now, talk with family members about what each thinks of Psalm 121. How did it make them feel? What did they like the best?

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Sermon: “Were Not Ten Made Clean?” (see other attachment)

Benediction:

May the God of hope

Fill you with all joy and peace in believing,

so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
